JANINA FALLS INTO HANDS OF GREEK TROOPS

Key to the Province of Epirus Wrested From
the Turks After Fierce Bombardment Lasting
Two Days and Nights
Without Cessation.

2,000 TURKS LAY DOWN THEIR ARMS

Turkish Cruiser Hami-dieh Said to Have Sent Three Greek Transports Loaded With Servian Soldiers to Bottom of Aegean Sea.

ATHENS, March 6.—The Turkish fortress of Janina, the key to the possession of the province of Epirus, with its garrison of 10,000 men, surrendered to the Greek army today after a defense which was one of the most brilliant episodes of the Balkan war.

The surrender was preceded by a three day bombardment, lasting without cessation for two days and two nights, very available gun, including a number of heavy Howitzers lent by the Serbian artillery, was brought to bear on the forts defending the beleaguered city.

Many Shells Fired.
No fewer than 30,000 shells were fired by the Greek guns during the three day's bombardment. Gradually the Turkish batteries at Bizani, Manoliara, and elsewhere were silenced.

The Greek commanders by a feint made the Turks believe that their attack would be made from the right.
Soon as the attention of the defenders had been distracted the Greeks sent large bodies of infantry onto Turkish left. The Ottoman troops, surprised, fell back in disorder.

Bizani Batteries Silenced.
The batteries on the heights of Bizani, mainstay of the defense, had been unable to stand the pelting of the shells and were reduced to complete silence at 6 o'clock yesterday morning.

The Greeks pushed their forward movement during the afternoon and occupied Turkish batteries on the Sakni and Hills, capturing all the guns and 110 Beymen. Then the Greek battalions finally deployed on to the plain in front of the city.

The Turkish flight immediately became general, despite all the efforts of the Ot-oman officers to rally their men. The defenders succumbed to panic and fled in a mad race into the city. The Greek troops followed in hot pursuit almost to the walls.

Turkish Garrison Surrenders.
With all the defending batteries in the hands of the Greeks and the Hellenic soldiers at the gates of Janina, Essad Pasha, Turkish commander, at 6 o'clock this morning sent messengers under a flag of truce to Crown Prince Constantine of Greece announcing surrender of the city and all the troops under his command.

The fall of Janina was the crowning achievement of the Greek campaign.
Excited people thronged the thoroughfares singing the Greek national anthem while joyous peals rang out from church steeples in the capital.

Mrs. Levi Z. Leiter, leader of society at the national capital and widow of the late Chicago multi-millionaire.

MRS. LEVI Z. LEITER DIES VERY SUDDENLY

Famous Washington Society Leader Ill Only Two Weeks, and End Not Expected.

WASHINGTON, March 6.—Washington society was shocked to learn late this afternoon of the sudden death of apoplexy at noon of Mrs. Levi Z. Leiter, one of the most popular social leaders of the 400 and prominent in many charitable and philanthropic movements.

Mrs. Leiter had been ill only two weeks, and her family anticipated no serious results. At the time of her death, Joseph Leiter, her only son, was busy in the office of the local gas company. When it was seen she was dying he was hurriedly summoned, but he arrived too late. She was dead.

Mrs. Leiter was also the mother of the late Lady Curzon, wife of the former viceroy of India; of the Countess of Suffolk and Mrs. Colin Campbell, both of whom reside in England.

It had not been determined tonight whether the funeral will take place here in Washington or in Chicago, where the body may be taken. Only tentative arrangements have been made pending the arrival of Mrs. Leiter's daughters, who have been called for.

The beautiful Leiter castle on Dupont circle was one of the show places of the national capital. Here some of the most notable social functions of Washington have occurred. Mrs. Leiter, the mistress of millions, spared no expense in lavish entertainments. She took a very kindly interest in young persons and has often been called the matchmaker of Washington society from the romances she has helped along.

Besides marrying her own daughters to nobles and her son to the beautiful Julie Williams, Mrs. Leiter is said to have had a hand in the romance of Representative and Mrs.
Nicholas Longworth, the one between the Duke de Chaulnes and Miss Marguerite Shonts and has been the fairy godmother of William Hitt in his efforts to gain the hand of Miss Katherine Elkins, who was reported engaged to the Duke of Abruzzi.

Mrs. Leiter was a noted horticulturist, and her conservatories were her pride and diversion. She has written widely of flower culture and her flower balls, in honor of White House debates, will live in social annals. At the one in honor of Alice Roosevelt, she propagated the blue verberna and for Miss Helen Taft the famous Helen pink verberna.

Besides the verberna, Mrs. Leiter propagated a rare and beautiful type of double orchid which has thrived in the Leiter conservatories under her watchful care. The garden of the Leiter home is one of the most attractive in Washington. Every spring Mrs.
Leiter gave a series of flower fetes which were attended by notables from all over the world.

SEEKERS AFTER THE OFFICES ARE GIVEN A SHOCK

President Wilson Turns Over Appointments to Various Members of the Cabinet to Decide.

FLORIDA SENATORS HEAR OF NEW RULE

Friends of the Executive Trying to Figure Out What Will Happen Next That Is Unusual.

By JAMES J. MONTAGUE.
By International News Service.

WASHINGTON, March 6.—Here are the official acts of Woodrow Wilson on the second day of his term. Many of them are unusual. Some of them are revolutionary.

1. Sent back to cabinet members the resignations of assistant secretaries sent him for action, with the information that these matters were for the cabinet members to decide absolutely and without interference by the president.

2. Announced that all diplomatic appointments will be made by the secretary of state, Mr. Bryan. This is an action hitherto unheard of.

3. Told Senators Bryan and Fletcher of Florida, who had asked him about appointments of Florida federal judges, that they must see Attorney General McReynolds about these appointments.
Inasmuch as the attorney general, through his assistants, must practice before the federal judges in question, the president's action in permitting him to name them was unprecedented and caused a vast amount of comment.

Begins Work Early.

4. Got to work at 9 o'clock in the morning and held a cabinet meeting of an hour and a half before 11.

5. Admitted to the cabinet meeting twenty men with cameras and permitted them to photograph himself and the cabinet members to their heart's content.

6. Had two earnest conferences with William Jennings Bryan, presumably about the Mexican situation. Although both Bryan and the president refused to give out any information about it, Bryan said the president would give out the news. The president said it must come from Bryan.

7. Received scores of delegations from the various states, but made it plain to all of them, through Secretary Tumulty, that they must not mention the word office while in the White house.

8. Persuaded William F. McCombs to take the ambassadorship to France if McCombs can arrange his affairs in this country.

Officials Astonished.

The action that most astonished official Washington was the president's announcement that Attorney General Mc-Reynolds is the man to whom all federal judgeships must be referred before appointments will be made. Mr.
Wilson was most emphatic in making this announcement. He held up his hand deprecatingly when Senators Brown and Fletcher started to broach the subject.

MATTSON WOULD LIMIT EXPENSE OF THE CAPITOL

Secretary of State Sends Message to Legislative Committee and Makes Suggestions for Economy.

THINKS $1,500,000 IS ENOUGH FOR BUILDING

Argues From Commission's Figures That All Money
Available Is Not Really Necessary.

HALF a million dollars will be added to the general fund of the state available for general appropriations if the legislature acts favorably upon the recommendation of Secretary of State David Mattson. Mr. Mattson will submit today to the joint appropriation committee of the senate and house a proposal to relieve the financial stringency of the state by limiting the cost of the state capital to $1,500,000, and turning back to the general fund of the state $500,000 of the two millions of dollars now available for the construction of the new capitol.

Mr. Mattson sets forth his plan in detail. He points out that at present the cost of the state capital is limited by statute to $2,500,000, though the cost of the building, according to the most ornate plans yet considered by the capitol commission, is $1,470,910.
The contract for the erection of the bare building has been let for $1,040, 000. For heating, wiring and plumbing an additional expenditure of $66, 000 will be necessary. The commission has the option of making changes and additions which will mean an additional maximum cost of $664,910. The outside expenditures for the erection of the capitol, Mr. Mattson points out, will not exceed $1,500,000, though for capitol purposes more than two million dollars are tied up.

$2,035,000 Available.

For the erection of the state capitol the legislature in 1909 authorized a bond issue of $200,000 and the use of $85,000 in the public building fund for the state capitol building. In 1911 the legislature authorized a bond issue of $1,000,000, and made a special appropriation of $750,000 for the same purpose. This makes a total of $2,035,000 available for the construction of the state capitol, or $535,000 in excess of the $1,500,000 which Mr. Mattson suggests as the maximum cost of the new state house.

Two Years Devoted.

Upwards of two years were devoted to the work of research and investigation on this subject. During this time the members of the commission personally visited and inspected the state buildings of many of the states.
Thus they formed their first impressions of the character and cost of the proposed state building for Utah. Then they carefully compared ideas and decided upon a practicable scheme of action. A general outline of the size, style and substance of the building was prepared. This, in turn, was submitted on a competitive basis to the very best architects in the country, with the further specification that the complete cost of the proposed building should not exceed the sum of $2,000,000.

The design submitted by Richard Kletting, a prominent and reliable architect, was eventually selected.
Considerable time was then devoted to a minute revision of the plans and specifications. In this work the members of the commission were afforded the great advantage of having Architect Kletting's counsel and experience. When the plans and specifica-

Social Position Demands In- crease, Says Guardian, and Court Awards It.

By International News Service.
NEW YORK, March 6.—Miss Helen De Witte, daughter of William De Witte, the late wire cloth manufacturer, who left her $3,000,000, to be held in trust until she has reached the age of 25, presented a petition in court the other day to have her yearly allowance increased from $12,000 to $20,000.

Miss De Witte is still in her teens, but her uncle and guardian, Josiah I. De Witte, contended that it was impossible to furnish the girl with all she required on a paltry $12,000 annually.

Her guardian stated that the young woman had been attending an exclusive school, where she had a maid and other servants. Moreover, he said, she made a trip abroad each year.

Increasing social demands as she grows older require more money and her guardian was of the opinion that her position in society called for an expenditure of at least $20,000 a year.

WOOD REMAINS CHIEF OF STAFF

President Takes Time to Consider the Matter of Naming Successor.

By International News Service.
WASHINGTON, March 6.—Major General William H. Carter, in command of the central division of the army at Chicago, will be the next chief of staff, according to belief of officials of the war department.

General Carter was slated to command the troops now at Galveston if it became necessary to make a landing in Mexico.

According to the story at the department, General Carter was ordered here from the Philippines by Secretary of War Dickinson to become chief of staff. The president, however, decided against General Carter in favor of General Wood, who was and is still a close personal friend of Colonel Roosevelt. Mr. Taft and Colonel Roosevelt were warm friends in those days, General Carter is a Democrat.

HALDORN GIVES BOND FOR WIFE

Special to The Tribune.
NEW YORK, March 6.—Prosecution of Mrs. George Haldorn, arrested six months ago for alleged complicity in a dressmakers' plot to swindle the United States government out of $1,000,000 by smuggling, has resulted in a reconciliation with her husband, a prominent lawyer and mining man, from whom she has been separated for four years.

WILSON ADMITS AIDING HUERTA AND FELIX DIAZ

Madero's Enemies Were Brought Together at the American Embassy and Plot Arranged to Arrest the President and Overthrow Mexican Government.

SONORA TROUBLE CAUSE OF ALARM

Secession of the Northern Mexican States Believed to Have Been Engineered by Americans for Purpose of Absorption By United States.

Special Cable to The Tribune.

MEXICO CITY, March 6.—Em-bassador Wilson told today the real story of the cessation of hostilities on February 18. The em-bassador sent for Huerta and Diaz to come to the embassy with their staffs and lawyers. After five hours of the hardest kind of work he left Diaz and Huerta alone for five minutes, and when he returned they had made peace. It was a squad of American officers that settled the differences and made constitutional government possible.

While there is no apparent diminution in the confidence of the government to eventually force pacification of the country, it is quite evident that the task is much greater than was at first believed. This is shown by the disquieting news from the northern states, not so much on account of the rebellions in Sonora and Coahuila in themselves as from what lies behind them.

Idea Not New.

The menace of secession of the north is not a new idea, but has been considered by Sonora, Chihuahua and Coahuila for years, and has many sympathizers, particularly among the foreign settlers and the mine and ranch owners, who have foreseen eventual absorption by the United States.

That Huerta and his advisors are keenly alive to this menace there can be no doubt and the utmost strength of the army will be used to nip the scheme in the bud. If the people once understand that the Mexican union is threatened they will rally to the federal government as never before and the news is spreading rapidly.

Anti-American Feeling.

An undercurrent of anti-American feeling is apparent in connection with this, as many believe that the scheme is engineered and backed by Americans. There is much anti-American feeling on the west coast, the ambassador receiving and forwarding to Washington many threatening letters that have been received by Americans living there. The general feeling among the middle and upper classes is that Huerta does not inspire sufficient confidence, they believing the provisional government to be full of intrigues to delay the presidential election and so keep out Diaz. They also believe that Diaz would make a good, honest and energetic president, but hardly an intelligent statesman, such as is needed for the head of the nation.

Join Zapata's Forces.

Just as everything seemed about arranged in the south for the bloodless submission of all rebels, including the Zapatistas, came reports that Tuerco Morales, who submitted when Huerta placated him yesterday by the present of a fine haelenda, has lost control of his men and that they have gone against the government, enrolling with Zapata and his ment. This disaffection is said to have been brought about by Professor Fran-

NEGRO SHOTS TWO OGDEN PATROLMEN

Opens Fire on Officers When He Is Discovered Robbing a Grocery Store.

Successor.

By International News Service.

OGDEN, March 7.—Two patrolmen were shot, one seriously, when a negro was discovered in the act of robbing a grocery store at the corner of Jefferson avenue and Twenty-fourth street shortly before 2 o'clock this morning. Patrolman John J. Murphy was shot in the chin, the bullet fracturing the jaw bone and lodging in the neck. It is believed that he will recover, although he is suffering from the loss of blood. Patrolman John Hutchins received a flesh wound when a bullet grazed his left hip.

Several shots were exchanged by the robber and Officer Hutchins after the wounding of Murphy, but the burglar, who is believed to have been uninjured, made his escape through the rear door of the store. Tom Karademian, proprietor of the store, believes that $10 is missing.

The Rev. D. F. Rassweller, who resides across the street from the store, notified the police when the robber entered the place by smashing one of the plate windows with a bottle. When the two patrolmen arrived they discovered the robber in the act of rifling the cash register, which is located less than ten feet from the front window.

Flashing his light through the window, Murphy ordered the robber to come out.
Without the slightest warning the negro fired one shot through the glass. The bullet struck Murphy almost squarely on the point of the chin. Hutchins, at the other side of the store and also outside, opened fire and was grazed by a bullet from the robber's gun. The burglar then made his escape through the rear of the store.

Murphy was taken to the home of City Physician Walter Whalen and later to the Dee hospital, where his condition was reported to be serious but not extremely dangerous. While able to talk but little, Murphy stated that the robber was a light-colored negro porter well known to the police, although he could not recall the man's name.

This is the second time that Murphy has been injured in a gun fight with a robber. He was a deputy sheriff when Seymour Clark was killed at Utah several years ago, and at that time received a bullet through the hand.

KILLS ALLEGED HOME WRECKER

Professor Oscar M. Olson of St.
Paul Surrenders Himself to the Police.

ST. PAUL, Minn., March 6.—Professor Oscar M. Olson, demonstrator at the Minnesota School of Agriculture, surrendered himself to the police today, admitting that he had shot and killed Clyde N. Darling, a laundry driver, early today. Olson appeared later before the municipal court and asked that his hearing be postponed until Saturday. This was granted.

Darling was shot near the back door of Olson's home. According to A. L.
Anderson, a government employee, Olson called him out of bed early this morning, took him to the Olson home and showed him Darling's body. The shots which killed Darling had been fired at such close range that they set fire to Darling's clothing.

According to the county attorney a family trouble was responsible for the shooting. County Attorney O'Brien said tonight that Olson had made a statement to Coroner Jones and himself, declaring "his wife had told him all." The statement was not made public.
